Whether it be leading the Crimson Tide to another victory or improving the quality of a child's life, John David Phillips has seen seasons of quality both on and off the field. A native of Anniston, Alabama, Phillips knew from an early age that he wanted to be a college football player and with encouragement from his family fulfilled that dream as a defensive back and quarterback for The University of Alabama Crimson Tide. During his time with the Tide, Phillips served as the Team Captain and President of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He was awarded the Chevron player of the game against Tennessee and the Pat Trammell Leadership Award, and was named Academic All-SEC three times.

After graduation, Phillips worked in investments and sales before joining the staff of the Big Oak Ranch in 2003 as the Director of Development. Established in 1974, the Big Oak Ranch now includes Big Oak Boys' Ranch in Gadsden, Big Oak Girls' Ranch in Springville, and Westbrook Christian School, Inc. in Rainbow City. For over thirty years, John and Tee Croyle and their staff have been meeting the needs of hundreds of children by giving them a solid, Christian home and a chance to fulfill God's plan for their lives. The "cornerstone," and even the name of Big Oak Ranch, has remained fundamentally rooted in Isaiah 61:3, "And they shall be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the Lord that He may be glorified."
